

Thanks for getting this document together. However, please define "animal" more broadly to include animals that are transported with the purpose of being sent to zoos and/or laboratories, not just pets of United States families. All of these animals need your protection. Thank you.